^{*}Elders elected to preside in absence of bishop.

In 1844 the great division occurred, and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was organized. Continuous activity in Holston Conference Methodist Episcopal Church was abandoned until the close of the Civil War. In 1865 the Holston Conference was re-organized at Athens, Tennessee, under the Presidency of Bishop David W. Clark.

OUR SAINTED DEAD

"These all died in the faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth."—Heb. 11:13.

MEMOIRS

JOHN C. HARMON

Brother Harmon was born in Fentress County, Tennessee, February 21, 1855, and passed quietly away at his home in Newport, Tennessee, February 2, 1923, and was laid to rest in Union Cemetery near his home. He was first married to Rennie Bernard, to which union five children were born: Mrs. Minnie Patton, Pikeville, Tennessee; John, Ruth, and Campbell, of Newport; and Mrs. W. G. Adsmond, of Athens, Tennessee.

The first Mrs. Harmon died in Oklahoma, in May,1908. He was married a second time to Mollie Searight, May 4, 1910.

Brother Harmon was converted in young manhood and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, felling his call to preach he was licensed as a local preacher, joining the Holston Conference 1889.

He served the following charges,: Emory Gap and Harriman; Elm Grove and Jones Chapel; Sewee; Rockwood; Sunbright; Harriman; Clinton; Kingston; LaFollette; two years at Coalgate, Oklahoma Conference; Vine Grove; Spring City and Spivey; Elizabethton and Newport; all of his time was spent in Holston Conference except the two years in Oklahoma.

Brother Harmon was ordained Deacon by Bishop Joyce, 1889, and Elder by Bishop Merrill, 1891. Brother Harmon suffered very greatly during the last year of his life but was never heard to complain. He was a good, sound Gospel preacher, and made lasting friends wherever he went.

Funeral services were held in Newport Methodist Episcopal Church where he had served very acceptably for six years, being conducted by the pastor assisted by the other pastors of the town.

DR. W. W. HOOPER

W. W. Hooper was born in Lewis Center, Ohio, October 18, 1843, and died in Chattanooga, Tennessee, February 23, 1923. He was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1872. In 1886 he was called to the Chair of Physics and Chemistry in the University of Chattanooga. He remained a teacher in the University until his death, having served as Dean of the College of Liberal Arts for fourteen years. Professor Hooper answered to Coleridge's description of a good man—one who holds in his character love, light, and peace. He daily demonstrated God's power to keep a man cheerful, hopeful, patient, just, and true. He possessed that imperial spirit which neither seeks to be great nor fears to be least. It was largely his modesty which gave him his unique power and personality. He believed with Goethe' that man rises as he strives to possess the ideal, and that he is thus purified. The ideals of living and dying for which he strove were those taught by the great Teacher. He disciplined his body, mind, and heart until he became one glowing unit shining for his Lord. He trained his manhood into one finished organ of expression, so that God, in the mystery of His indwelling, used him as the exponent of His Spirit in teaching the youth of his day. He stood in the place of Christ to his students, not because Jesus was absent, but for the greater reason that He was present. He lived in the field of discovery, kept a young spirit, and remained an enthusiast. A modern man, a loyal citizen, a devout Christian, a princely educator, he stood faithfully and fearlessly for God and all good things. For nearly four score years he magnified the Master and made life happier, richer, sweeter.

Funeral services were conducted by Bishop Bristol and J. M. Melear, in the beautiful Patten Memorial Chapel where he had often lifted his heart to God in earnest prayer. Good bye, faithful friend, devoted husband, loving father, an ideal teacher—good bye, but not forgotten! In loving hearts made better by his life, in many minds made stronger by his teaching, will be preserved forever the name and memory of Wesley Watson Hooper.

GEORGE H. THOMSON

George H. Thomson was born in Fairfax County, Virginia, April 15, 1845, and died at his home, Simpson's, Floyd County, Virginia, February 25, 1923. Brother Thomson came to Floyd County, Virginia, in March, 1881, and married Miss Malinda Smith, daughter of James W. and Emeline Smith, of Simpson's, Floyd County, Virginia, November 2, 1881. To this union were born three children, one daughter and two sons. Miss Nellie Thomson, the daughter, and James Meade Thomson, the younger son, both live at the old home, Simpson's, Virginia. and the older son, Edward Thomson, lives in Roanoke, Virginia.

Mrs. Thomson, the wife of Brother Thomson, preceded him several years to the grave, she having died September 2, 1913.

Brother Thomson served three years and eleven months in the Civil War. He was with the 13th Maryland Regiment and fought under General Meade at the Battle of Gettysburg, where he was badly wounded and was taken to the Santafe Hospital, at Philadelphia.

Brother Thomson represented his county in the State Legislature in 1904, was was well-known over Floyd County.

Brother Thomson was admitted on trial in the Virginia Annual Conference in 1876; full membership 1878; ordained Deacon by Bishop Andrews 1878; Elder by Bishop Merrill, 1880. He served three years as a Supply before he was admitted on trial in the Conference. And from the year 1873 to 1895, when he retired on the account of ill health, he served the following charges: Augusta, 1873; Greenbrier, 1874; Augusta, 1875-76-77; New River, 1878-80; Floyd, 1881-83; New River, 1884-85; Roanoke, 1886; Franklin, 1887; Floyd, 1888-89; Bethelem, 1890; Floyd, 1891-92; Roanoke, 1893-94; retired, 1895.

Brother Thomson was in great demand on special occasions, and probably preached more funerals than any other minister in the county. Rev. J. K. Rumburg held his funeral services, after which his mortal remains were deposited in the cemetery near Smith's Chapel, Simpson's, Virginia, to await the Resurrection Morn. We have held Brother Thomson in great admiration, and are now sadly bereaved; but we believe our loss is his eternal gain.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

THOMAS H. HODGE

For logical reasoning backed up by a sincere love for his fellow man, it is doubtful if Thomas H. Hodge had a superior and but few equals in the entire realm of his official relation to the Methodist Episcopal Church, covering a period of nearly half a century.

Born on the twenty-seventh of September, 1848, he passed into the Great Adventure of Glory on the fourth of April, 1923, having lived almost seventy-five years, or within a few months of five years more than the allotted scriptural time for man. His first wife was Henrietta Stepp of Carter County, Tennessee, who lived to bear him two children, Paul and Maude. His second wife was Mary Morelock, of a fine old Greene County, Tennessee, family, who bore him four children: Vernon, a successful physician at present in the service of the government at Danville, Illinois; Newman, who died in infancy; and Mary and Herbert, who, with their mother, reside at the old home near Piney Flats, Sullivan County, Tennessee.

Every man has his outstanding characteristics and perhaps none were more prominent in the makeup of Brother Hodge than his frankness and independence of thought. His reasoning was clear and his convictions sure and positive from which it was difficult to swerve him, once he reached a conclusion. His clear thinking as a minister of Jesus Christ brought many souls into the Kingdom during his wide service throughout the Conference.

It is probably not too much to say that, viewed from a moral and religious standpoint, Thomas H. Hodge was on the right side of every public question that arose during his lifetime even when it took a great amount of courage. Many people yet living will remember how he fought for prohibition at a time when many so-called high churchmen were not outspoken in favor of the abolition of the morning dram and the annihilation of all spirits. Yet he never wavered in the advocacy of what is now a constitutional amendment, although but few people in those early days saw far enough ahead to think that the Congress of the United States would ever act upon this important question.

Then, like Andrew Johnson, his eyes never beheld the man his heart feared. He would take issue with a bishop the same as with a layman if he thought the bishop wrong. Likewise, he was quick to defend the lowly and obscure, the "under dog", for neither place nor position nor condition made any difference to him when right or wrong, justice or injustice, were in the scales. His neverfaltering courage was refreshing as was his defense of the helpless and the impoverished.

Then he had a scholarship that most people may have overlooked and that but few seemed to appreciate. His understanding, technically speaking, of Latin and Greek and Hebrew seemed to be on a par with Horace and Xenophen and Moses, so far as any present day scholars could judge. His knowledge of modern thought was such that he could penetrate the most adroit argument, as witness his marginal notes on Sir Oliver Lodge's widely read book "Science and Immortality", which at the time of its publication attracted the attention of the thinking world.

But to the mind of the writer, the most refreshing thing about this man Thomas H. Hodge was his supreme tenderness. He was quick tempered, quick spoken, and easily irritated, but behind all that there was a tenderness for those he loved perfectly Christ-like in its manifestations. Then to see him in argument defending Christ, His mission, and the principles of Christianity, in addition to the saving power of Jesus Christ, was within itself a great spiritual inspiration.

And may one thing more be said, namely, that Thomas H. Hodge never forgot a friend. No spark of ingratitude lurked near his loyal soul. He was bound to his friends with hooks of steel that no criticism or worldly gain or well-aimed calumny could pry loose, because he thought clearly and with affectionate reasoning.

Counting everything from this early defense of prohibition to his deeply religious penetration of modern scientific thought with Jesus Christ as the background, it is our high privilege to denominate Thomas H. Hodge a Thinker.

REV. H. B. OGLE

Rev. H. B. Ogle was born at Middle Creek, Sevier County, January 28, 1848, and died at his home, 2210 McCalla Avenue, Knoxville, Tennessee, on June 27, 1923. He is survived by his wife, five children, three brothers, and five sisters. During the stormy days of the sixties, he volunteered into the service of his country and fought for the cause he loved. He received an honorable discharge at the close of the war.

He joined the Holston Conference at Cleveland, October, 1888, and at every session from that time until his death, when his name was called, the answer was "Nothing against him". He served the following circuits: Sunbright; Andersonville; Scarboro; Rutledge; Morristown; Newport; Chuckey; Johnson City; Big Valley; Rutledge (second time); retired October, 1909.

His quarterly conference membership was in the Park City Church, and as long as he was able to attend he was a familiar figure at every service. He loved the church and endeavored, as he understood his obligations, to fulfill his mission. His one topic was the church and Christianity, and he laid great stress on Sabbath observance. Up to the last he talked about his prospects for a heavenly mansion, and would always enquire about the welfare of the Kingdom.

"By their fruits ye shall know them." With unfailing faith he went out into the presence of God. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Emert and W. I. Marshall, and his body was laid to rest in the old Middle Creek Cemetery, near where he was born and converted.

MRS. J. L. CARDWELL

Mrs. J. L. Cardwell, (nee) Henrietta Miles, was born November 12, 1848, died May 10, 1923, aged 74 years, 5 months, and 28 days.

Mrs. Cardwell was married to Henry Leopard, June 1, 1865, with wohm she lived happily until his death, March 15, 1887; and to this union six children were born, three of whom survive her.

She was married the second time to the Rev. J. L. Cardwell, January 15, 1898, who passed to his reward October 20, 1910.

Mrs. Cardwell was converted early in life and lived a consistent Christian until her death. For the past eleven years she was an invalid, and her suffering was intense, yet through it all she was patient and submissive, often praying "If it be Thy will, take me home, yet not my will but Thine be done".

Her funeral service was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. Murrell, at Watkins Chapel, Morristown Circuit, and the body laid to rest beside her husband, the Rev. J. L. Cardwell.

The beautiful flowers and the host of friends who gathered for her funeral showed the love they had for her. May the sorrowing children and friends be comforted by the thought that "Their loss is her gain".

Conference Rules

- 1. No person shall absent himself from the sessions of the conference without leave, unless he be sick or otherwise unable to attend.
- 2. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the conference proceedings, which he shall cause to be published in the Annual Journal of the conference, and it shall be the official journal. He shall edit the minutes and all matter for publication, and shall make contracts for the printing of the journal as in his judgment may seem best. He shall have charge of the journal and conference files, and forward them to the place of the meeting of the annual conference each year.
- 3. All committees whose reports are to be printed in the journal shall present their reports to the secretary in writing, otherwise the committee on publication is not required to insert such reports in the journal.
- 4. All candidates for admission on trial, for admission into full membership, for admission on credentials from other churches, for re-admission, and for recognition of orders, shall be required to appear before the Committee on Conference Relations and the Board of Examiners, and to furnish such information as may be required touching their general character and their qualifications for the ministry.
- 5. All cases involving a change in conference relations or withdrawal shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.
- 6. Widows of deceased ministers who have ever traveled with their husbands may be temporary claimants, and may be referred to the board of stewards, who shall decide each case from year to year.
- 7. The chairman of the board of stewards shall be ex officio one of the assistant secretaries of the conference for secretarial work in connection with conference claimants, and shall be the last member of the Committee on Memoirs.
- 8. The memorial service for deceased members, and for the wives of deceased members, shall be the special order for conference Sunday afternoon following the ordination service.
- 9. Conference visitors shall be allowed 10 minutes in which to address the conference. District Superintendents' reports shall be limited to 15 minutes, and reports of committees, except the board of stewards, to five minutes.

- 10. All applications for special collections to be apportioned to the charges in the conference shall be referred to the Committee on Special Collections.
- 11. There shall be elected each year a Nominating Committee, consisting of three members, which committee shall nominate the Standing Committees and the Committee on Nominations for the ensuing session. No member of the Nominating Committee shall be eligible for consecutive re-election to this committee.
- 12. When a resolution has been introduced by a member, before the person who introduced the resolution shall speak, the question of consideration may be raised by a member saying, "Mr. President, on that I raise the question of consideration". The question of consideration shall then be put without debate, and if there is a two-third vote against the consideration, the resolution shall not be entertained; but if consideration be not denied, the member introducing it may speak to the resolution if it be seconded.
- 13. The standing committees confirmed each year by the conference shall be as follows: 1. American Bible Society; 2. Auditing; 3. Church Literature; 4. Conference Claimants; 5. Conference Relations; 6. Deaconess Work; 7. District Conference Records; 8. Education; 9. Epworth League; 10. Foreign Missions; 11. Freedman's Aid Society; 12. Home Missions and Church Extension; 13. Memoirs; 14. Nominations; 15. Public Worship; 16. Resolutions; 17. Sabbath Observance; 18. Sunday Schools; 19. State of the Church; 20. Special Collections; 22. Temperance; 23. Book Concern Accounts.

Rules of Order

- 1. The conference shall meet at 8:30 a.m., spending 30 minutes in devotional exercises, and adjourn at 11:45 a.m.
- 2. The president shall decide all questions of order, subject to appeal to the Conference, and in case of appeal from the decision of the chair the question shall be put without debate.
- 3. The president shall appoint all committees not otherwise provided for by the conference or the discipline, but any member may decline serving on more than one committee at a time.
- 4. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the president, secretary, or any member requests it.
 - 5. No motion shall be considered unless it has been seconded.
- 6. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.
- 7. When a motion, resolution, or report has been read by the secretary, or stated by the president, it shall be deemed in possession of the conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before decision or amendment.
- 8. No resolution or motion shall be made until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motions shall have precedence in the following order: The previous question, indefinite postponement, laying on the table, reference to a committee, postponement to a given time, amendment or substitution.
- 9. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted in the affirmative, to move a reconsideration. The motion to re-consider shall be taken without debate.
- 10. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the conference when said question is put by the chairman, except by leave of the conference.
- 11. Every member who is within the bar of the conference at the time a question is put shall give in his vote thereon, unless the conference for a special reason shall excuse him.

- 12. When any member is about to speak, in debate, or deliver any matter to the conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address the chairman.
- 13. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, nor more than five minutes at any one time, without special leave of the conference, and no person shall speak more than once until every other member desiring to speak shall have done so.
- 14. No member shall be interrupted while speaking except by the chairman to call him to order, when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language, but any member may call attention of the chairman to the subject when he considers the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.
- 15. It shall be in order to move that the question be taken without further debate, on any measure pending before the conference, except in case where character or conference relations are involved, and if sustained by a two-thirds vote, the question shall then be put.
- 16. No motion, resolution, or report shall be laid on the table until the member introducing such motion, resolution, or report has been allowed to speak on the subject.
- 17. It shall require a majority vote to sustain the call for the yeas and nays.
- 18. The motion to adjourn, to suspend the rules, to lay on the table, to take from the table, and the call for the previous question shall be put without debate.
- 19. It shall require a two-third vote of the members present to suspend these rules.

Terms of Office

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR EXAMINERS AND CANDIDATES

- 1. The work of the Board is divided into six groups: Admission on trial; first, second, third, and fourth years; and Local Orders. Each group to be in the hands of a committee—one of the committeemen to be chairman of the committee.
- 2. Mid-year examinations are required; time and place to be arranged and announced.
- 3. The day preceding the opening of the Annual Conference is the time appointed for examination.
- 4. The candidates are urged to buy their books at the very opening of the year, and study carefully the mid-year subjects, and after the mid-year examinations make complete survey of the remaining subjects immediately. The examiners are required to correspond with the candidates in the early winter, preparatory to mid-year examinations.
- 5. The requirements of the Discipline are to make the examinations written if practicable, and two weeks ahead of the Annual Conference to send written questions to the Chairman of the Board.
- 6. The chairman of each group is to submit in writing the grades of the candidates in his department to the registrar.
- 7. The provision for the mid-year examinations does not deprive any candidate of the opportunity of being examined on any subject at the time appointed for the examination at the Annual Conference.
- 8. The Board of Examiners, together with the candidates, are called to meet at the place of next Annual Conference session the night previous to the day of Conference examinations.

Reports

BRISTOL DISTRICT

J. F. REED, Superintendent

The Bristol District represents one of our greatest fields in Holston Methodism, or perhaps in the South. Its resources in coal, timber, mineral, and agriculture are byond comprehension, therefore offering an opportunity that cannot be excelled in any land.

Upon coming to the district, we found all of the charges provided with pastors except the three following: Greendale, Radford, and Jonesville. W. H. Johnson, a local preacher, was assigned to the Greendale charge, and has had a successful year. E. M. Rupe, one of our leading local preachers, and a member of the Radford charge, preached for our people there, until C. W. Hancock, who came to us from the Missionary Baptist Church, was secured to relieve him and from his reports he has finished the work of the year with good results. F. M. Wilson, one of our faithful local preachers, was placed in charge of the Jonesville work, some months after conference, but after a few weeks of labor was forced to give up the work on the account of illness and J. H. Ely also, a local preacher, finished out the year with telling success.

W. W. Lee, resigned the pastorate of the Russell charge in May, and J. D. Farris, a local preacher, was appointed to the work, for the remainder of the year. Rev. Stockwell resigned the pastorate of the Roanoke Church, December the first, and John H. Ford, of the United Brethren Church, was secured as supply pastor for the charge, and from his report the work is going forward, and our outlook was never brighter in Roanoke.

Our outstanding achievement in material progress for the year has been the dedication of the seven following churches: Bold Camp and Duncan Gap on the Wise Charge; Touners Memorial on the Jonesville charge; Mt. Campbell, on the Fries charge; and Fairview, on the Konnarock charge, costing something like $1800 each. Dr. J. J. Robinette, pastor of our Sevierville Church, dedicated the Robinette Memorial Church at Fairview on the Pattonsville charge in June, costing $10,000.

West Bristol was dedicated in August by Dr. J. M. Melear, editor of the "Methodist Advocate Journal", which is estimated to be worth $3,000. The Christianburg congregation added two Sunday School rooms to their church at a cost of $1100.

The following churches will be ready for dedication within the next ninety days: Morgan's Memorial at Rose Hill, which is being completed at a cost of about $14,000 and will be the second best church in the district; Vicars, on the Christiansburg charge is near completion, costing $1800; Smiths Chapel, on the Gate City charge, at a cost of $1200; also Lydia, on the same charge, at a cost of about $5000; Hawkstown on, the Fries charge, at a cost of $1800; and Bakers Ridge, on the Russell charge, at a cost of $1800.

We are planning to build two churches on the Pattonsville charge, one at White Oak and one at Helton on the Konnarock charge, one at Coeburn on the Wise charge, and one at Millers Chapel on the Clinch Valley charge, where our church burned down one year ago.

Possibly the most important undertaking in the District is being planned in Roanoke. Here we have sold our old church for $6000 and have purchased a lot costing $10,000 located in the Southeast Section of the city on Tazewell Avenue, the main thoroughfare to the Southeast Section, where more than twenty thousand people live, and only four blocks from the heart of the city. The congregation is using a five room cottage at present for church purposes, which is located on the lot. We are planning to build a church on this new location, which, when completed, will cost around $60,000. The sunday school has already subscribed something over $6,000, and a freewill offering is being taken every fourth Sunday in interest of the new church and about $200 is realized each month.

Our time has come to put over a real, worth-while program in this industrial city of 65,000 people, and with a Ford going on high, day and night, we will win.

We have tried to put the district into the 100 percent column on salaries and benevolence, and for the most part will be able to report over the top. We have had an increase in the payment of salaries this year to the amount of about $5,200. The Centenary collections will show some little increase, but not what it should be. Around $7,000 has been paid on debts and improvements on church and parsonage property.

Three new charges are being planned for next year. One at Big Stone Gap, one at Riner, and one in Clinch Valley. Our District Conference was a great inspiration to all who attended, the Conference voted to establish two campmeeting grounds, one in the east end and one in the west end, of the District, which we hope will become a reality and a spiritual uplift to our people in this section of Methodism.

Many revivals have been reported with 917 accessions to the church. Our Sunday Schools will show a gain in enrollment of about 400.

The health of the pastors and their families has been very good during the year, with the exception of Brother Ball, pastor of West Bristol, and Brother Johnson, pastor of Greendale, both of whom underwent an operation for appendicitis, which proved a success in both cases. I had the flu for the first time, and could not hold two of my Quarterly Conferences. This was the first time in my ministry I was hindered for two successive Sundays from filling my appointments on account of being ill. Brother Ogle, pastor of the Salem charged, looked after the work for me during my sickness.

Brother F. M. Wilson, one of our local preachers, and Brother Thompson, one of our retired preachers, passed to their Heavenly reward during the year.

To speak of the achievements of the District would mean to mention the name of each pastor and layman. As to my own work, I have traveled many miles, and tried in every way I could, to be of service to the pastors of the District, and to the Master's cause.

We are grateful to our Heavenly Father for strength and Grace to carry on His work for another year.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT

M. P. MURPHY, Superintendent

When appointed to the Chattanooga District at out last Annual Conference, I found every charge supplied with a pastor except two: namely, East Athens and Tracy City Cicruits. R. S. Qualls, a student at Athens school, was put in charge of East Athens, and J. H. Scissom was appointed to the Tracy City Circuit. Each of these brethren served faithfully to the end of the Conference year. After a month of acceptable service on the Mt. Airy Circuit, Hobart Murphree, a student in the University of Chattanooga, on account of ill health, gave up the work. About the middle of the year, W. C. Daniels, another student, was put in charge, who rendered very satisfactory service. W. L. Pickering, pastor at Etowah, was released from the charge by Bishop Bristol about September first to attend school at Albion College, and Noel H. Cardwell, recently graduating from Boston University, School of Theology, was put in charge and finished the work of the year. With these exceptions, all the pastors stayed by their charges to the end of the Conference year.

Two of our pastors, R. S. Qualls, and J. W. L. Sandusky, were in the hospital for serious operations from which they have recovered. Brother Sandusky had an additional sorrow in the death of his little child. Mrs. G. S. Bales, wife of our pastor at Alton Park, was bereaved by the death of her mother. Excepting these, there has been no serious illness in the families of our pastors.

While others of our young pastors have just barely escaped, only one has married. Noel H. Cardwell, after finishing school at Boston, and accepting the pastorate at Etowah, was united in marriage to Miss May Louise Beckham, of Chattanooga, in the beautiful Patten Memorial Chapel of the University, on September 29, by his venerable father, J. W. Cardwell, a beloved member of this Conference. The good wishes of their many friends go with this happy couple, wherever their lot may be cast in the Master's service.

The Chattanooga District is composed of twenty-nine charges—sixteen stations, and thirteen circuits. These charges are served by eighteen full members and probationers of the Conference and eleven supply pastors. Ten of these pastors are students in the University at Chattanooga and Athens, and render excellent service considering the fact that much of their time is spent in school.

We have had a good year on the District. Our financial reports will show large gains over last year. When tabulated, the reports will show a gain in pastoral support of $2,500, and a total gain for ministerial support of $3,500 to $4,000. We have been unable to secure complete figures on Centenary and Apportioned Benevolences, but we expect a substantial gain ($3,900) over last year. We have had the faithful assistance of Dr. B. M. Martin, our area secretary, who has responded to every call so far as possible to speak in the interest of the Centenary. The area and district meeting was held in Chattanooga in February. Able addresses were made by Bishop Bristol, Drs. E. R. Fulkerson, R. E. Gornall, Luther E. Lovejoy, representing our Missionary Boards, and others of our local talent too numerous to mention. The meeting was suggestive and encouraging, and the delegates went away more determined than ever to carry the Centenary program through.

Our building program is termendous when we consider the material expansion that will be needed in the next few years. We are inadequately equipped for our work in most of the charges. Most of the rural churches are one-room buildings and unsuitable for the carrying out of the present program of the church. Many of these need repairs of one sort and another. Several should be remodeled at once to take care of the growing needs of the Sunday School and the various activities of the church. Several new churches should be built immediately in our country charges, but especially so at Bell Font, Chatata Circuit, at Welch's Chapel, Mr. Airy Circuit, and at Big Springs, Cleveland Circuit. When we come to our village, town, and suburban churches we still find great need of building and improvement of church property. Churches like Englewood, North Athens, Soddy, South Pittsburg, are hampered in their work for lack of room. These should be remodeled at once in order to accommodate their growing Sunday Schools and congregations. Etowah, Manker Memorial, Red Bank, and Ridgedale are in great need of new churches, and the churches at Alton Park, and Avondale, are suffering for repairs, and the time is near when First Church, Highland Park, St. James, St. Marks, will have to provide additional room to take care of their growing activities. We need new parsonages at Etowah, Red Bank, and South Pittsburg. We also need a district parsonage which we hope will be secured in the near future.

However, some things in this direction are being done, and the way is being prepared for the larger program to be carried out in the near future. North Athens recently bought the public school property adjoining the church there for $500, for the purpose of building a parsonage on this site. It is also planned to add another room to the church for Sunday School purposes. St. Marks has purchased a property across the street from the church for $5,000, which is converted temporarily into a parsonage. There are five lots to this property, some of which may be sold to advantage, and later on a modern parsonage built on the site reserved for that purpose. The church at Athens has been redecorated, a new heating plant installed, and other improvements Highland Park church has also been redecomade at a total cost of $2,100. rated and additional rooms fitted up for Sunday School purposes at a cost of $2,000. Cleveland is planning to install a pipe organ in the church there, to build a gallery and redecorate the church at a total cost of about $8,000. Already $5,500 has been subscribed on this project and work will begin soon. Big Springs church, Cleveland Circuit, has bought an additional lot for $250, which gives ample room for the erection of a new church there. Repairs have also been made on the following churches: Englewood, Daisy, Coalmont North Athens, Cedar Springs, and Ora's Chapel. Improvements have been made on parsonages at Athens, St. James, and St. Marks.

Considerable progress has been made along spiritual and educational lines. Evangelistic meetings have been held in most all the charges. As a result of these revivals, there have been 1,100 professions of faith in Christ, and about 800 accessions to our church.

Probably our greatest needs in our Sunday School work are trained leaders and better equipment. We need room for our work. One of our schools conducted two or three classes in the out-of-doors last summer because there was no room in the church for them. It is not uncommon to find classes crowded into dingy basements or uninviting corners, while others resort to the parsonage or some near-by building to receive instructions from the Word of God. We must provide room and secure adequate equipment to meet the growing needs of our Sunday School work. There will be a splendid gain in enrollment over last year. We have a few teacher-training classes in the District, and two of our churches, Highland Park and St. James, are trying out the Daily Vacation Bible School with good success. A Sunday School institute was conducted in First Church, Chattanooga, in March by Dr. H. C. Wilson, Superintendent Institute Department of the Board of Sunday Schools and his helpers, Harry A. Reid, Superintendent of Sunday School Work in Holston Conference, Dr. Arlo A. Brown, and Miss Mildred Moody. Institutes were also held in Cleveland and Athens with good results.

The interest in our Epworth League work is encouraging. We have some of as fine Epworth Leagues as I have ever known, and a splendid body of young Christian workers. Eighty-seven of these young people attended Epworth League Institute at Sevierville last summer, and about one hundred delegates attended the special Epworth League service rendered at our District Conference. Delegations from Athens, Cleveland, Soddy, South Pittsburg, and from the various churches in Chattanooga crowded in until the church at Daisy was filled to overflowing with enthusiastic young people.

Our Good Will Industry, the first of its kind in the South, was organized recently at St. James Church. B. M. Morrison, pastor of the church and Superintendent of the Good Will Industry, and Mrs. Morrison, took a five weeks training last summer at the Morgan Memorial Good Will Industry in Boston, familiarizing themselves with the work. They also visited other points where the industry is in operation in order to study every phase of the work. "The object of the industry is to supply work for the down-and-outers, the cripples, the aged, and the unfortunate people of Chattanooga. The slogan of the industry is 'Not Charity but a Chance'". A property not far from the church has been leased and fitted up for the use of the industry. The work rooms are upstairs and the sales rooms on the ground floor. Two thousand bags have been placed in the homes of the people of the city for the gathering of material, and already twelve persons are at work. The formal opening of the industry occured on the 22nd day of September.

F. C. Smathers, our Young Peoples Worker at St. James, has rendered splendid service in organizing and training the young people for Christian work, and E. W. Hilmer has served well as associate pastor of First Church, and espedially so in conducting the work of the Junior Church.

"The rapid development of the University of Chattanooga is a cause for congratulation to the entire Conference. For the third successive year the college will show a gain of thirty percent or more in attendance. The total enrollment will go over 450 this year, while the enrollment of Athens school will be over 300, giving a total enrollment to the University of approximately 800 students. It will interest this Conference to know the number of ministerial students enrolled is increasing rapidly and that the courses in Bible and Religious Education offered in Athens and Chattanooga seem to be as popular as those in economics, history, and the physical sciences."

Considerable material improvement has been made on the Athens school. The building of concrete walks throughout the campus; the erection of a model school for observation and practice in the Normal Department; the installation of a gas plant for the use of chemical laboratories are some of the results of the Endowment Campaign. Contract has been let for building a gymnasium-auditorium on the site now occupied by the college chapel. This will be a beautiful structure when completed and will add much to the appearance of the campus as well as to the service of the school. Dean Robb, who is entering upon the sixth year of his connection with the school, calls special attention to the amount of individual attention given to the pupils of all the classes; to the advantages offered girls at Ritter Home in which the Woman's Home Missionary Society throughout the church takes most pride; and to the fact that the outstanding feature of the school is the religious life and the moral influences under which the students are placed.

When I came to the district last fall, I found a desire on the part of the pastors especially to have the District Conference re-organized. The matter was taken up in the Quarterly Conferences and practically all voted to have the District Conference established. The Conference was held at Daisy in July, and was considered a success. The addresses and sermons were suggestive and spiritually helpful. Some of the special features were the programs rendered by the Epworth League, by the ladies representing the three or four Women's Societies of the Church, and our joint meeting of laymen and ministers at the closing session.

With regard to personal labors, I will say briefly: I have moved twice during the year; traveled throughout the District, making the usual rounds of Quarterly Meetings; have preached at 153 services; held 112 Quarterly Conferences; attended forty-five other Conferences and Committee Meetings; baptized eleven persons; conducted one funeral; have sent out from my desk, 1825 pieces of mail in the interest of the work; have done what I could to help pastors and people to solve their problems and advance the interests of the Kingdom.

I am profoundly grateful for good health; for the hearty reception I have received on the part of the pastors and their splendid people; for the fellowship I have enjoyed in the Quarterly Conferences and in the various services of the church; and for the generous hospitality I have shared in the homes of the people.

HARRIMAN DISTRICT

H. M. HAWK, Superintendent

The Harriman District of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church occupies about three fourths of the western half of East Tennessee, embracing in whole and in part fourteen counties.

In a large part of this territory the people have very poor church privileges. From Oakdale to the state line, and Jamestown to Clinton, a territory of at least 5,000 square miles, our Methodism has a clear field, being the only Methodist Church in this section and we do not have a single full time church and only two half-time churches. This field is occupied by our Methodist folks and we ought to go up and possess the land, though it will take men and money to develop it, there is a chance for great returns. While the whole District is a mission field, this part should have attention now.

This District is composed of twenty-eight pastoral charges, consisting of 104 preaching places. Four of these charges are stations, seven of them are two church charges, four are three point circuits, thirteen are from four to eight point charges.

Men were appointed to twenty-seven of these charges at the last session of the Holston Conference, two days later the twenty-eighth man was secured. Fifteen of these men are in the effective relation in the Conference, two are retired, nine are local preachers, one an exhorter, and one a Baptist minister.

Early in the year, the pastor of the Crossville and Clarke Range charge asked to be excused from serving the Crossville Church. His request was granted and Rev. O. R. Rector, a local preacher, and Rev. A. C. Koser, former pastor, have supplied the Church very acceptably to the people. About the middle of the year, the pastor of the Andersonville charge asked to be relieved of three churches on that large circuit, and after careful consideration, Rev. Henry C. Irwin, a local preacher, was appointed pastor for these churches, in which field he has rendered good service, and has been very acceptable.

The pastor of the Deer Lodge Circuit, who was teaching for a living and preaching for the good of the cause, doing real missionary work, changed his field of labor and gave up the circuit. No regular pastor was found, but Brother T. V. Peters, who is especially interested in our mountain work, redoubled his diligence and took these people, as far as he could under his pastoral care.

Rev. M. B. Gass has been seriously ill, during part of the year but when he has been able to preach his service has been very acceptable to his people, and if he is able to take a charge, they ask for his return.

With a few exceptions, these men have been on the field working hard to win the lost, and to build the Church, and to advance all the interest of the Kingdom. Most of them have faced conditions as trying as those faced by the pioneers, and the old Heroes of the Saddle Bags. True, they have the benefit of the railroad train, and the automobile but these go only part of the way into the heart of the Cumberlands, where you reach many of the churches of this great undeveloped territory, so the preacher finds it necessary often to travel on foot over the snow capped mountains, through the Marshy Glen, going on in spite of the biting blasts of the winter winds, or the burning rays of the midsummer sun.

A trip with one of these men over the mountains reminds of us St. Paul's journey over the Taurus, going on "amid perils of rivers and perils of robbers only to plunge into greater perils from his kindred and perils from the heathen", with the same faith in God, the same relentless courage, with which the apostle met these difficulties, these men of God meet the difficulties and hardships of the mountain circuit of today. In no other way can they be met.

Here are some of their accomplishments this year. Other things will be seen in their reports, but many worthy accomplishments will not be reported here, but shall stand to their credit on the Book up yonder.

We have little to report on building though the church at New Tazewell is nearing completion, due very largely to the untiring efforts of the pastor, Rev. H. A. Gamble, and a few worthy laymen, who have made sacrifices of time and money that this church might be completed.

A new parsonage at Dayton worth about $3,000 is ready for occupancy by the Pastor. This worthy achievement has been made possible by the heroic efforts of the pastor, H. G. Byrd. $700 will pay the debt on this beautiful Florida bungalow parsonage. Improvements on church and parsonage property amount to $22,501; paid on debts, $20,000.

Some notable revivals have been conducted. Early in the year, Rev. M. B. Gass, pastor of the Vine Grove Circuit, conducted a meeting at Vine Grove Church which resulted in thirty-five conversions. Rev. W. H. Ragan, pastor at Jellico, reports sixty-five conversions and seventy-three accessions to our church. Rev. John H. Meyers, pastor of the Maynardsville Circuit, reports a great revival at Maynardsville, in which Rev. A. B. McKenzie, Conference Evangelist, rendered fine service for ten days, resulting in sixty-five conversions and forty-four accessions. The pastors salary has been doubled at that church and all claims paid in full. Rev. E. M. Boyd, pastor of the Newcomb Charge, reports fifty days spent in revival work: results, 150 professions and fifty-five accessions to the church.

Rev. M. H. Prevett reports a meeting at Clarke Range resulting in about eighty conversions and forty-three accessions to that church. Rev. E. R. Branam reports a good revival at Oakdale, in which some men who had been very hard to reach by church influences were brought to Christ. The whole number of days spent in revival work, 210; number of conversions, 900; number of accessions, 605. His people presented him a Ford car.

Our Sunday Schools have grown in numbers and interest, many of the pastors report progress in this important auxiliary to the Church. We have a few well organized men's classes, prominent among these are the classes at Jellico, Harriman, Clinton, and Rockwood.

From March 14th to 16th, Dr. Harry Wilson and Secretary H. A. Reid conducted at Rockwood, Tennessee, a very successful Sunday School Institute, which was followed by a Centenary promotional meeting conducted by the area secretary Dr. B. M. Martin. These meetings were very helpful in creating greater interest in Sunday School and Centenary acrivities. Along with the increase in Sunday school attendance has come an increase in the church attendance, and most of the pastors were preaching to more people the last quarter than any other quarter in the year.

The Epworth League work in the District is not what it should be though we have a few good chapters and hope for a revival in that work soon.

July 17-19 was the time of our District Conference at LaFollette, Tennessee. The pastors were present with well-prepared addresses and inspirational sermons. The visitors, Professor Burkhart, President of the Laymen's Association, Dr. B. M. Martin, Area Secretary, Dr. Mellons, returned missionary, Dr. J. M. Emert, Chairman of the Holston Conference Board of Examiners, brought us helpful messages. Dr. J. M. Melear, on the last day of the Conference, delivered a truly great sermon, which reached the hearts of all present, the results of which carried our thoughts back to Pentecost and furnished plain proof, that the baptism of power is still a possibility. Mrs. Vera Smith Biddle, of the Woman's Missionary Society, delivered two helpful addresses and rendered fine service in beautiful, spiritual song.

The Conference received the sad message of the death of Professor A. B. Peters, District President of the Laymen's Association, and County Superintendent of Public Schools of Morgan County, Tennessee. The church and schools have sustained a very great loss in the death of this good man and Christian educator.

Pastors salaries will not be paid in full but reports sent in show advance over last year. These salaries, if fully met, would furnish meager support, and even then these charges could not be served without heroic sacrifice by the men on the field.

These men are not pessimistic, but in the midst of the most trying conditions, they meet you with a smile and tell you they hope it will be better tomorrow.

As to my own work, I have given my time fully to the task, worked at it through the day and dreamed of it at night. I have conducted all Quarterly Conferences for the year, have preached an average of four times a week, presided at three special meetings, attended two other special meetings, have traveled about 8,000 miles on railroad trains, automobiles, buggies, log wagons, farm wagons, horseback, and on foot, but I have made 8,000 miles on the journey toward the better country.

JOHNSON CITY DISTRICT

R. L. STAPLTEON, Superintendent

The Johnson City District embraces all of eleven counties of upper East Tennessee, and a few appointments in two others. The population of these counties according to the census of 1920, is 280,613 persons.

Our reports at this Conference will be made from twenty-eight pastoral charges. We started the year with twenty-nine, but had to combine two during the year.

There were but three changes made in the appointments during the year, as follows: E. W. Akard resigned from the Sneedville charge and that work was assumed by W. H. Quary, who had been appointed to the remainder of the work in that section, at the last Conference.

In the spring of this year, L. B. Clark was transferred to St. John's River Conference, and, with the consent of Bishop Bristol, I. B. Leonard, who had been given a year's rest on account of sickness, was appointed to finish the year on Mountain City and Butler. C. J. Bornman was placed at Pitt in place of N. R. McConnell, who left the work in the spring.

All the pastors have been busy and successful in their charges during this, a very trying year in many respects.

In view of the fact that this report completes my sixth year on this District as Superintendent, it may not be out of place to make some brief statistics of what developments and what advancements have been made in this time.

In the comparisons which may be necessary to make in this, I do not in any way nor in any sense reflect on the work and accomplishments of my predecessors in this office. Rather, and in fact, the foundations which they and the preachers of this District in the past have laid, have made possible the marvelous developments of the present stage of our work in this section of the Holston Confefence.

In the statistics of the year 1917, the report on the claim for Ministerial Support was $20,697.00, and this claim has steadily grown until last year's report showed the claim to have been $34,264.00, and probably this will be somewhat increased this year. When my predecessor, S. G. Ketron, came on this District, at the close of his first year, 1911, there was but one charge, Johnson City, that paid one thousand dollars or more to the pastor, and when he finished this term in 1917, four charges had come into the thousand dollar class.

Now we have eighteen charges which are paying for Ministerial Support, one thousand dollars or more, besides house rent.

While we have had a wonderful development in financial advancement, we are not able to show such a large percentage of gain in Sunday School and Church membership. Like many others of the districts of various conferences throughout the church in other sections, we have just about been able to hold our own, in view of the many shifting changes of population during the last four or five years. We would have had this otherwise if we could, for I am sure the pastors have labored constantly to get the people converted and into the church, and to get the children and youth enrolled in the Sunday School for the study of the Word of God, and yet this year there will be good reports on professions and additions, and in Sunday School enrollment.

In our developments in Benevolent Collections, the District has had a wonderful growth also.

In the reports for the year 1917, the total disciplinary benevolences for the District amounted to the sum of $2,061.00, and for the succeeding years up to this year since then, we have had the following reports: 1918—Total Disciplinary Benevolences, $2,332; 1919—$18,397; 1920—$17,727; 1921—$14,671;

1922—$12,224; and 1923—is yet to reported. We are hoping and expecting that this year there will be some advance over last year. If so, we will have averaged over $10,000 per year for the entire six year period.

This is a marvelous record for a District which is entirely rural territory, and so classed by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. I did not collect this money. I do not lay any claim to have done so. I could not have done it. The pastors and their faithful and sacrificing laymen are the ones to whom all the credit is due for these great results in benevolent financiering.

The period has also been good in the building of churches and parsonages and in the increase of church property. In the six years church property values have increased from $306,030 to the sum of $523,890. We now have 123 church buildings, and 23 parsonages.

During the term, the following churches have been built and part of them dedicated: Valley View, in Johnson County, and Grange Hall, in Hawkins County, dedicated by Bishop Bristol; Trade Church, in Johnson County, dedicated by W. F. Pitts, assisted by W. Z. Harshbarger; Wagners Church, in Johnson County; Slagles Chapel and Valley Forge, in Carter County, and dedicated by the District Superintendent; Sulphur Springs Church, in Washington County; Joppa Church, in Grainger County; and then we have taken over a new church and organized a good class in Greene County with the name of the church as Newmanville. Also, our fine new church at Kingsport is being built under the great leadership of E. O. Woodyard, and we believe it will be completed some time next year.

In addition to these building projects, there have been many of our churches repaired and improved, conspicuous in this class of improvements being our churches at Morristown and Newport. These two churches will now be able to do fine work in Sunday School development because of the equipment in rooms for the use of the classes in the schools. The cost of the Morristown project was $8,500 and of Newport $6,500. On the Telford Charge, every church and also the parsonage have been repaired and improved during this term. Many other churches in the District have been making minor repairs and improving their equipment during these years.

We have also secured new parsonages in the District during this period, as follows: Johnson City District Parsonage, worth $10,000; Johnson City Station, new parsonage worth $15,000; Kingsport, new parsonage worth $8,000; Baileyton and Limestone Circuit, new parsonages worth $4,500 each. A new shed has also been built at Ross Camp Ground. The following parsonages have been repaired and debts paid as follows: Morristown Circuit, Chuckey Circuit, Telford, Mountain City, and Mountain City Circuit.

It would be impossible, as you will see, to exactly appraise, or even state, all that has been done in the way of development on this line, and it is very probable that a fair estimate of our church property now in this District will approximately close to $600,000.

These developments will also indicate that the pastors of the District have been efficient in leadership of the finances of the churches as well as in other activities, because pastoral leadership is absolutely necessary for the accomplishment of such results as are here indicated.

It would not be right for me to close this part of my report to this Conference without some reference to the relationship of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to these enterprises of which I have spoken. No doubt the Centenary Challenge had much to do with many of the churches in their building successes. It is but fair and deserving to say that the Board has been very considerate and uniformly interested in all our requests and askings for financial aid to the churches of the District, and that the Board of Home Missions alone has put back more money into the District than the District has paid in, in the past four year, for all the Boards. This, of course, includes our educational and missions and Church Extension has already invested more than $50,000. The Board has aided us in this District during these five years in twenty-four enterprises, besides monies allowed on missionary maintenance.

For myself, I have very little to say except that I have been busy on my job during this year and through all these years. I have put all there was of me, and the best there is in me, into the work to which I have been assigned. I have preached or exhorted in 140 public services this past year. I probably have averaged preaching four times per week for the entire period. I have held ninety-three Quarterly Conferences, and one each were held for me by W. F. Pitts and E. O. Woodyard. The people of Johnson City District still want the District Superintendent to preach ever so many times when he comes to the charge. Some of them feel that they are to pay him for preaching and not for administering the business affairs of the charge. I have traveled to the remote corners of the District time and again in order to encourage the people of these sections, and to inform myself of the exact conditions under which they live and work. I have suffered but little inconvenience in this except in a temporary way but have learned many things in so doing.

I close this six year term with a feeling of great satisfaction that God has given me physical strength, spiritual sustenance, and with great joy that the Church has given me the opportunity I have had as Superintendent of Johnson City District.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT

J. W. BOLING, Superintendent

While many charges have increased pastoral support, some of them in a substantial way, there is cause for regret that in most instances salaries are far below the dictation of reasonable demand.

The church is facing the predicament of fostering standards of pastoral support and of missionary undertakings far beyond the standards of support established in the habits of our people. And the most flagrant obstacle, after all, is not insufficient means. It is in the disposition and not in the quantity of the substance which we possess that gives rise to our source of shame. The only scheme which will ever oil the bearings of our Methodist financial machinery and thus enable us to negotiate the grade on which we are now deadlocked is the indoctrination of our people in the scriptural standards of systematic and conscientious stewardship.

Our building program has suffered from the same causes which were responsible for insufficient pastoral and missionary support. And yet, some outstanding exhibitions of heroic achievement have been shown. On the Knoxville Circuit a modern six-room bungalow parsonage has been erected on a splendid and commodious site, comprising six acres of valuable land. Shady Grove Church, on the Dandridge charge, has been re-constructed and together with the beautiful surroundings, has been revolutionized in attractiveness and utility. This enterprise cost $2500.

New Salem charge has become conscious of the value of a comfortabe, home for the pastor, as a result the parsonage is being rebuilt and other valuable improvements made on the grounds at a cost of about One Thousand Dollars.

A lot has been secured for a new church building at Meadow on the Friendsville Circuit. This lot is in the immediate center of the community and it is the contemplation that a new church be erected next year.

Our church at Whittle Springs has excavated and constructed a concrete basement at a cost of more than One Thousand Dollars. This provides much needed room for that rapidly growing church and Sunday school and accommodates the new features of social and recreational activities to be introduced into their modern program.

Our congregation at Maryville has erected the finest and most commodious church edifice in our entire Southern territory outside the great cities. In fact, few, if any, of our great city churches excell this one, either in magnificence or in utility.

Trinity Church has overhauled and furnished their parsonage at a cost of more than one thousand dollars.

Second Church, this wonderful church, which opens wide her ample doors and her generous heart to receive this, the greatest session of the Holston Conference in all its history, this church has paid on indebtedness and improvements eight thousand dollars this year, making a total of twenty thousand dollars during the past three years. Whether the pastor and people of this church are magicians or not, the writer not being versed in the metaphysics of such ontology, is not able to say. All that he is able to say is that at each successive quarterly visit there sits a hitherto unheard of array of strange faces gazing, not from the old pews, because they are groaning under the same corpulent and lean ones who taxed their capacity at the time of the former visit. An array of entirely new and eager faces sits gazing out of new pews. Because the genius of this flock for getting new and other folks is only equalled by their ability to get new shingles over their heads and new boards under feet as rapidly as they come trooping in. Beyond question or successful contradiction the moon is—or was—inhabited.

Loudon Circuit has paid, this year, forty-three hundred dollars on the two splendid churches built two years ago.

Inskip has paid one thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the indebtedness incurred in reconstructing the church two years ago.

At Sevierville, our church has procured a plot of land adjoining the church, fronting one hundred and fifty feet, running back the full depth of the college campus, and all the land included in the campus back of the church building. On this property is a wood structure formerly used for a dormitory and which will be converted into a community center for social and recreational activities of the school and church. On the vacant property the church plans to erect a modern brick parsonage in keeping with the great cluster of buildings which are to adorn the fine campus on the hill. Murphy College is just completing the second of the group of buildings provided for in the larger development of that wonderful institution. The administration building, which is costing thirty-five thousand dollars is so nearly completed that it is planned that this Conference shall go in a body and witness the dedication by our honored and much beloved Bishop Frank M. Bristol on Thursday of this week. The school is witnessing the greatest year in its history.

Our church at Oakwood has begun work on the new building so long and so much needed. The foundation of concrete and brick is already in and the sub-floor of the auditorium is laid. Seven thousand, five hundred dollars has already been spent. This is to be a splendid church edifice, not an expensive building at all considering the equipment to be obtained; nothing less would provide for the need and take care of the opportunity. For it is now dawning upon men wise enough to see that we cannot command the respect of the men of affairs in our suburbs with a tumble-down church building.

Park City Church has paid on on idebtedness, four thousand five hundred dollars this year.

First Church, Knoxville, has purchased a second lot east of, and adjacent to the one purchased last year. These two lots adjoining the present church property, fronting on Clinch Avenue, purchased, one last year and the other this year, have cost the total sum of thirty-eight thousand, five hundred dollars. On these two lots are to be erected in the immediate future a home for the Associates Bible Class and also a neighborhood house with combined accommodations for the Sunday School and for social and recreational purposes. The Associates Bible Class now has an enrollment of fifteen hundred young men. The entire Sunday School has an enrollment of more than twenty-four hundred.

A meeting of the Conference Board of Sunday Schools was held in connection with a Sunday School Institute last February. This Institute was put on by the Board of Sunday Schools and was the first of its kind ever held. Dr. Harry Wilson, of the Board ,and Dr. Harry H. Reid, our Conference Sunday school field worker, were in charge of the Institute.

The young peoples work has been majored in the District this year. There are now more organized and thriving Epworth Leagues than there are charges in the District. Many of our Leagues now conform to the latest policies and incorporate virtually everything contemplated in a model organization and program. A number of rural leagues are now incorporated in our city union, and the meetings of the union, which are now being held every month, are phenomenal in the numbers attending and in the enthusiasm shown. The Conference Institute held at Severville was the most largely attended and the best in the history of the Conference.

The Junior Leagues are running a close second to the Senior Leagues. In a number of Junior and Intermediate Leagues more than a hundred children are enrolled. The Junior and Intermediate Leagues of this, the Second Church, Knoxville, has an enrollment of one hundred and seventy-five.

The Sunday Schools of the District show a larger enrollment and greater interest than ever before in their history. In a number of the Sunday schools, including even rural charges, courses in teacher training have been and are being carried on. This, of course, is fundamental. It is designed to cure the long standing ill of poverty in intelligent teaching ability and local leadership. Much has been done in Missionary Training through special programs featured in conformity to the policies of the Sunday School Board. Some daily Vacation Bible Schools have been held this year with most splendid results. An average attendance of forty-five was realized in one of these schools. It is our plan to propagate in all of the schools of the District next year a standardized missionary program, promoted by a District Sunday School Missionary Committee. This program will be extended by using minute men in the regular church services. The District Missionary Committee will forward to each local church selected chapters of current missionary news and information of such type and interest as to engender continuous and renewed enthusiasm in the greatest project ever undertaken by any denomination— THE WORLD SERVICE PROGRAM.

The auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and of the Woman's Home Missionary Society have done a splendid year's work. The standardized activities have been diligently and faithfully carried out. Very distinct increase in many of the auxiliaries has been achieved. One auxiliary in the District has raised more than fifteen hundred dollars this year.

The spiritual develpoments have been larger in proportion than the ratio of material investments and of physical effort would logically suggest. Gracious revivals have been held at almost every transition of the calendar throughout the year. Many hundreds of people have experienced pardon and found peace with God around our altars this year. The increase in the Church membership will, beyond question, excel any year in the history of the District. There is scarcely a church which has not added new members during the year. Many churches have added fifty or more. Quite a few have added from seventy-five on up to and beyond a hundred. At least two churches have added more than one hundred and fifty members each this year.

While the year has not been all that it might have been, our hearts quicken with emotion as we behold what gracious rewards God has bestowed upon services so inadequately rendered.

And now we turn on the rise of quickening faith and with eager hearts look toward the dawn. For while much apparently has been done, more remains to be done. If it is to be done, our compass must sweep the horizon of the larger field and the gauge of the plow must be in like proportion set.

As at first indicated, the physical lying so near the base of operations must not escape considerate attention. So much of our East Tennessee soil has been dissipated by long continued and persistent spoliation that a systematic and rigid policy of reclamation must be woven into the agricultural habits of our people. Lack of organization and co-ordination resulting in haphazard selection of crops, and in incoherent methods of marketing crops when grown, has demoralized and almost paralyzed agricultural interest. An attempt to improve these conditions by establishing a sympathetic point of contact between the farmers and the Department of Agricultural Extension in our State University, is one of the items to go into the program for the new year. Improved soil, uniform, and profitable crops, co-operative marketing, means prosperity, contentment, and a better promise of liberality. If once our people have the experience of disposing of a surplus instead of laboring with a deficit, our appeals for stewardship will assume a sweet reasonableness instead of engendering resentment by our people who till the soil.

In the past the emphasis has been of necessity preponderently local. The local charge must first be led to function on its own program of development before it can be induced to co-operate in the interests and policies of the entire District. We have had to be content to begin at Jerusalem. But it has never been the contemplation to stay there. The progressive and co-operative habit is now sufficiently developed in the local parish that District organization and co-operation may be undertaken without the hazards of defeat.

There are three natural centers around which a plan of organization and promotion can revolve—Maryville, Knoxville, and Sevierville. Maryville, having a great church building, a strong official board, fine talent for leadership of every kind, having with the great Aluminum Plant of America at her door, moving in the atmosphere of a splendid Christian college. and being surrounded by a great and resourceful territory sharing a large percentage of Methodist people, constitutes a natural and advantageous center around which to build a symmetrical plan of development.

Sevierville, picturesque, romantic, and sublime, stands in the midst of the greatest opportunity for rural development in the entire South. There are enough of young people in the patronizing territory of Murphy College to shake the continent if properly distributed. To shake it with cataclysms of political and social disaster if improperly trained. But to shake it for justice, righteousness, peace and good order if properly trained. It is Methodism's responsibility to see that they are properly trained. It were as reasonable to build a wheel without a hub as to leave Sevierville out as a base around which to move.

Knoxville, with our eleven churches, gaining from fifty to one hundred and fifty members each per year, naturally writes itself into any co-ordinating plan. It is known all over the United States that Knoxville gained one hundred and fourteen percent in her population during the decade preceding the last official census. There has been more building, both of business and resident property in Knoxville during the last three years than during the entire decade just referred to. It is claimed that during the years since the war, there have been constructed enough buildings in this city to form a solid wall on both sides of a street ten miles long should these buildings be placed thus against each other. In this city we have more than five thousand church members. There are approximately twelve hundred young people in our Junior, and Senior, Intermediate Leagues. There are about seven thousand five hundred people enrolled in the Sunday Schools of our churches in Knox-Naturally, sympathetically, geographically, potentially, Knoxville stands as the greatest of these points of departure in any contemplated scheme for a constructive development.

With such tremendous interest here and throughout the whole of the Holston Conference, to say nothing of the other Conferences in this Area, should not our great denomination be cautious in negotiations involving compromises not only relative to these large interests, but even fundamentals of our constitution, in attempts to effect reconciliation with a part of the family which found cause to go away from us and which seems hesitant concerning an immediate return?

EDUCATION

The Methodist Episcopal Church believes that there are no limits to the possible development of human character with the help of Almighty God. It also believes that this character should be developed by education in the home, the public schools, the local church, and Christian institutions of higher learning. The Holston Conference is particularly fortunate, to have within its boundaries the Murphy Collegiate Institute, the University and of Chattanooga with its two schools—the College in Chattanooga and the Athens School in Athens.

We congratulate the officers and the trustees of Murphy Collegiate Institute upon the rapid development in buildings, equipment, faculty, and student body of this institute and we pledge to this institution our loyal support.

We also congratulate the Athens School and the College of the University of Chattanooga upon the development of their property and upon the steady improvement in every phase of their institutional life. We see in the rapid growth of these institutions a contribution to the success of our churches which cannot be estimated; and pledge to the officers and trustees our complete support.

We wish also to express our appreciation of the assistance of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church which, through wise, helpful counsel and generous appropriations, has been so large a factor in the progress of our educational work in the South and in the entire country, and to express the hope that in the near future the resources of this Board may be greatly increased.

A. A. BROWN, Chairman.

Addenda to REPORT by J. M. Melear:

The "Methodist Advocate-Journal", in its issue of October 4, 1923, said:

"President Brown is cheered by the fact that the University of Chattanooga reports an increased in enrollment of thirty percent in the College of Arts and Sciences above that of last year. This will be the third successive year in which the enrollment has increased by thirty percent or more. In fact, the student body has increased 120 percent in three years, and the income from tuition and fees has increased more than twenty percent. The Athens School a standard college preparatory and normal school affiliated with the University of Chattanooga, is at the beginning of another prosperous year. The enrollment of more than three hundred students is already assured. The University will enroll approximately five hundred, making a total of eight hundred for both schools. The classes in Bible and religious education at both institutions compete for popularity with those in economics and the physical sciences. One of the most gratifying features is the growing number of students who have come from a distance. Florida sends two new students; Texas, five; Iowa, two; and Illinois, two. Outside of Tennessee, the most marked increase has come from Alabama and Georgia. President Brown credits much of this growth to the Methodist preachers who boosted the University so loyally during the last two years. In return for this support the University is bending every energy to prepare the young people for more effective Christian service in their home communities."

President Brown is generous in his praise of preachers and other friends of the institution. But all understand full well that he is one of the greatest factors in the University's development. Capable and conscientious, industrious and indefatigable, he is bringing our central institution to a commanding position among the leading colleges of this country. Let us all hold up his hands and strengthen his plans and purposes for future growth.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE

The price of prohibition is eternal vigilance; Therefore be it resolved:

- 1. After more than a hundred years of legislation, the eighteenth amendment has been written into our national constitution and has been productive of infinite economic and social benefits. We enter a strong protest against the effort to restore the sale of intoxicating beverages such as wines and beer as inimical to sincerity in law and integrity in government, and we demand the strict enforcement of the prohibition law by officers selected and compensated for that duty.
- 2. That we heartily commend the action of the American Bar Association in their endorsement of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead Act, at their recent session at Minneapolis.
- 3. That we view with great concern the manifest and widespread increase in the disregard for the laws of the land. We urge our people to do everything possible to secure the enforcement of laws against lotteries, pool selling, and bookmaking, slot machines, punch boards, and raffles.
- 4. That we protest against the permitting of prize fights, which promote brutality and cowardice and drag in their train an infinite variety of evils and perversions. We declare our relentless hostility against this so-called sport, but which is the antithesis of true sport.
- 5. That, while opposing all blue laws, and holding no fanatical opinions as to Sabbath observance, we urge upon our people a proper use of God's holy day. Christian people have a right to a proper opportunity for worship and meditation unimpaired by the distractions of commercial enterprise and noisily commercialized amusements. We condemn without hesitation the desecration of the Sabbath by the opening of picture houses, playing baseball, golf, or anything else that does not belong to the keeping of the day.

- 6. That we most heartily endorse the work of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals of The Methodist Episcopal Church, located at First Street and Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C., and commend its interests to the ministers and people of the denomination.
- 7. That we petition Congress to take such measures as will suppress rum smuggling ,to strengthen and uphold the agencies of prohibition enforcement and to give consideration to moral measures which are properly brought to the attention of that body.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. H. TAYLOR F. D. WATSON

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE INSTITUTE

To the BISHOP AND MEMBERS of the HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

Our Holston Conference Epworth League Institute was held in the buildings of Murphy Collegiate Institute from August fifth to twelfth. We had a record attendance of two hundred and seventy-seven registered students. The faculty consisted of eleven trained workers. We were unusually fortunate in being able to secure eight from within the bounds of our own Conference. The percent of faculty members who came from within the bounds of our own Conference was much higher than is customary in Epworth League Institutes.

The work of the faculty was of a very high order. The regular attendance of the students at the class work was the best we have ever had.

There were thirty-four of our students who consecrated themselves for life work in Christian service. One of the most significent things about these life decisions was the fact that thirty of the thirty-four came from people whose pastors attended the Institute.

Standard text books accepted by the Central Office of the Epworth League were used by all of the instructors. This work was of such value that several of our pastors took the work throughout the week. They expressed themselves as greatly helped by the week's study and contact with the splendid young people of the Conference.

Mr. Wallace Hitch, president of the Conference Board of the Epworth League, and his able cabinet, are to be earnestly congratulated upon the splendid work they are doing for the young people of the Holston Conference. The members of the Conference Board wish to take this opportunity to record their appreciation of the splendid way Dr. Bishop and the representatives of his school so generously and heartily labored to make the Institute a success. The greatest need of the Institute is more hearty cooperation of the pastors of the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

VICTOR W. THRALL,

Chairman of the Conference Epworth Commission and Dean of the Faculty of the Institute.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

The American Bible Society has issued about one hundred and sixty thousand volumes of Scriptures in more than one hundred and fifty languages and dialects.

This Society has made possible the word of God for all nationalities, for hospitals, and jails, and Bible agents carry the Holy Scriptures to all parts of the world.

We, the Committee, recommend the work of the American Bible Society to all pastors and also to the whole church.

E. R. BRANAM CICERO DOBBS T. V. PETERS

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Whereas, there is a widespread disregard for the day set aside by an Almighty and infinitely wise God, as the necessity of the human race, as a day of physical rest and spiritual activities, by the observance of which nations and individuals have prospered materially and spiritually; and through lack of observance have declined in every manner except in evils, so inimical to human advancement; and,

Whereas, pleasure, lust, and commercial greed have combined to undermine and overthrow this holy institution of God;

We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, hereby recommend that our ministers show from all our pulpits the evils of its disregard. And, further, that we do not, through legislative or coercive means, undertake to do this matter which should arise out of healthy morals and spiritual tastes, but on the contrary through the engendering a desire through to do the right for right's sake and the Lord's sake.

Respectfully,

C. V. BELLAMY

P. L. CLONCE

C. H. ELY

SOCIAL SERVICE

Inasmuch as the drift of the times seems to point to a more diversified work for the church; the one cry that will not down is "Social Service".

The etipome of religion, as taught by Jesus, finds its expression in our helpfulness to our fellows. The accomplishments of the church so far in Social Service are to be highly commended. We, therefore, exhort the church to a renewed effort in Social Service.

Recommendations Adopted by the Conference on October 11

- 1. That we urge the organization of our Sunday Schools according to the standards adopted by the General Board of Sunday Schools, with particular reference to and emphasis upon the following:
- (a) Departmental organization; (b) Departmental worship wherever possible; (c) Cradel Rolls; (d) Home Departments; (e) Organized and registered Young People's and Adult classes; (f) Missionary instruction and service activities; (g) Attention to social and recreational life; (h) Adequate and permanent Sunday School records; (i) Proper abservance of special days, with special attention to Christmas, Children's Day, and Rally Day, with offerings taken as directed by the Board of Sunday Schools.
- 2. That our schools introduce, wherever practicable, and as rapidly as conditions will permit, the closely graded curriculum prepared and published by our own church.
- 3. That at least one class in Teacher Training, studying for credit, be conducted by each school, pursuing the subjects and using the text books recommended by our Board of Sunday Schools.
- 4. That every pastor in the conference read the general texts in the Standard Training course and become sufficiently acquainted with them as to be able to influence the work of the schools within his charge and to raise them to a higher level of efficiency.
- 5. That District and Sub-District Institutes and Conferences of Workers be conducted, in cooperation with the District Superintendents, using such talent as may be available within the District or Conference.
- 6. That Sunday School programs be planned for the District Conferences and for the Laymen's Association meetings throughout the Conference.
- 7. That we request the Board of Sunday Schools to establish, as soon as practicable, an annual Standard Summer Training School within the bounds of the Conference, and that sentiment be developed throughout the Conference for the support of such a school.
- 8. That we urge the erection of properly planned and equipped church buildings, in which a genuine religious educational program can properly function.
- 9. That the pastors and Sunday School teachers, realizing that the great aim of the Sunday School is evangelism, do earnestly seek to win to Christ the children and young people and to bring them into church membership; and that intelligent and careful methods of evangelism be used with the children and young people of the varying ages in conducting special days and periods for decision.
- 10. That the Conference Sunday School Superintendent be requested, in his visitation of schools, to remain in the charges sufficiently long to accomplish some definite results in the way of needed improvements in organization and program, and that the pastors and Sunday School officers and teachers be urged to cooperate with him in every possible way in the effort to bring the schools to a higher level of efficiency.

- 11. That our churches conduct, wherever possible, or officially participate in, Daily Vacation Bible Schools, and undertake, wherever possible, some form of week-day instruction.
- 12. That there be selected in each District, by the District Superintendent, and the Conference Sunday School Superintendent, a superintendent of each of the following named departments of Sunday School work: Teacher Training, Elementary Work, Young People's Work, Adult Work, Missionary Education, and Daily Vacation Bible Schools, who shall co-operate with the District Superintendent, the Conference Sunday School Board and Superintendent, and the Department Superintendents of the General Board, in promoting standards of organization and program; and that the District Superintendent shall be the District Chairman of Sunday School work.
- 13. That the amount of $500 be raised, by apportionment to the charges, for the financial support of the promotional program of the Conference Board of Sunday Schools.
- 14. That we express our appreciation of the assistance given us by the General Board of Sunday Schools, and pledge our support and co-operation in any and all programs projected for our benefit in the future.
- 15. That we set as our goal for the coming year: (a) A 25% increase in enrollment; (b) A 75% average attendance; (c) The organization of Teacher Training classes in at least 50% of our schools; (d) One thousand officers and teachers in training; (e) Two thousand pupils accepting Christ and uniting with the church.

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION OF BISHOP AND MRS. BRISTOL

The Master of us all once said, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends". This Scripture has particular significance to the pastors and laymen of the Holston Annual Conference as it comes to the closing session of this quadrennium.

When this Quadrennium closes, according to the law of the church, Frank M. Bristol, for sixteen years bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will complete his career as an effective elder and bishop. He will also complete his service of eight years as resident bishop of the Chattanooga area. What his career has meant to Methodism no one can tell. One of the greatest preachers which our denomination ever produced, a pastor in the strongest churches of the denomination, six times a delegate to the General Conference, a bishop serving effectively in South America and the United States, he has completed a record of service seldom equalled by any minister in any branch of the Christian Church.

It is impossible for this Conference to express its appreciation of the character and service of this brother beloved. Especially are we grateful to him and to the Methodist Episcopal Church for his life and service in this area. He has given his great strength of heart and mind to the upbuilding of the churches in this great area and the memory of his thrilling messages and his inspiring life will be a heritage not only of ourselves, but also of our children and grandchildren.

We also desire to express our profound love and deep gratitude for Mrs. Bristol. Her vital interest in every phase of our work, her gracious personality, and her unfailing loyalty and friendship, are enshrined in our hearts and prayers forever. Since the days of her young womanhood she has assumed the duties incident to the wife of a Methodist preacher. She has toiled in the Missionary Societies, the Ladies' Aid Society, among the young people, touching like an angel of light the lives of rich and poor, high and low, making all to feel the influence of a life completely given in service to her Master and humanity...

Therefore, be it resolved, That we, the pastors and laymen of the Holston Conference, express to Bishop and Mrs. Bristol our profound gratitude for their friendship and service among us, assuring them of our ceaseless love and of our prayers that they may have many years of happy Christian service wherever they may take up their residence.
